Thanks For The Memories

The Little Things That Happen
Are tucked into your mind,
And come again to greet you
(Or most of them, you'll find).

Through many little doorways,
Of which you keep the keys,
They crowd into your thinking-
We call them Memories.

But some of them are rovers
And wander off and get
So lost, the keys grow rusty,
And that means-you forget.

But some stay ever near you;
You'll find they never rove-
The keys are always shining-
Those are the things you love.

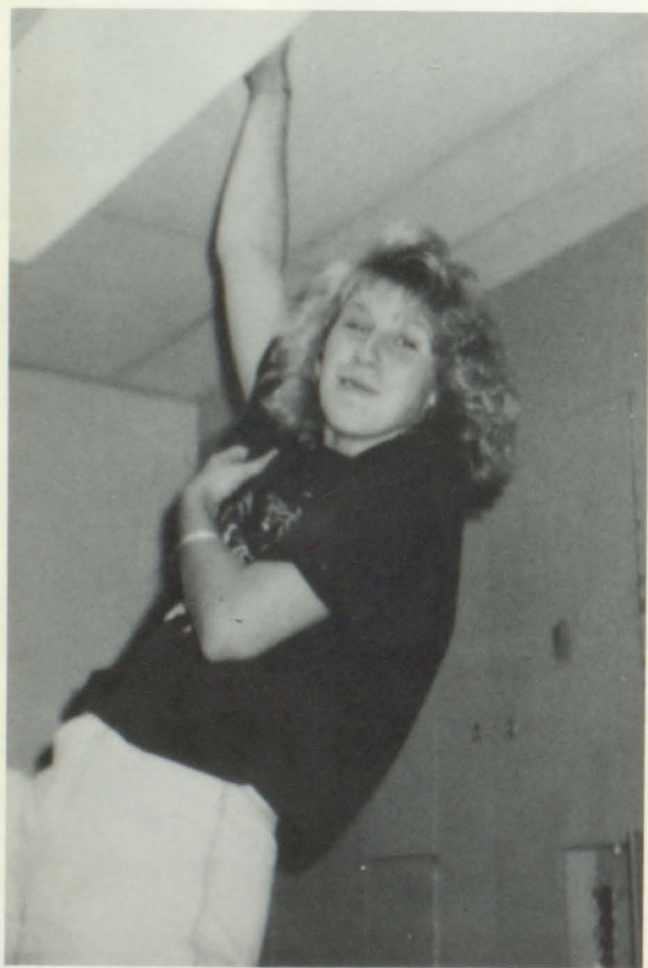

Marjorie Wilson

This is our school,
Let peace dwell here,
Let the room be full of contentment.
Let love abide here.
Love of one another,
Love of mankind,
Love of life itself,
And love of God.
Let us remember
That as many hands build a house,
So many hearts make a school.

From "The School Creed" of a School in Canada

The Marching Band went to Florida May 5-10. They marched in two parades, at Universal and MGM Studios, and played at a concert band festival. They spent their free day at Magic Kingdom. That day was a vacation well earned. The band began rehearsing at the beginning of April and practiced two days a week until the night before they left. It was an experience no one will forget.
