History of Clarion County

Peter Jackson arrived in St Petersburg Pa. December 10, 1836. Mr Jackson kept a correct record of the dead buried in the Union graveyard until 1883. His record shows that the first person interred there was a child in 1811, and from that time until 1883 eleven hundred persons have been buried therein. When Judge Peters sold his tract of land in what is now the borough of St Petersburg, he gave a portion of it to the German Reformed and Lutheran Churches for a sum of one dollar. The graveyard is included in this tract. The German Reformed and Lutherans built a union church on their property in 1835. The Reformed congregation was organized in 1835 by Rev. George Koch. After a time, there being some dissatisfaction in the Union the Reforms withdrew and built a Stone Church in 1854. This building being somewhat dilapidated, it was torn down and replaced with the present brick building in 1877. The Lutheran congregation was organized in 1838 by Rev. George Ehrenfeld. They used the Union building until 1873 when the
